UNVEILING & DEDICATION OF THE War Memorial,

SATURDAY, OCT. 8th, 1921, at 4 p.m.

"Their Name liveth for evermore."

Order of Service.

Hymn.

O God, our help in ages past, Our hope for years to come, Our shelter from the stormy blast, And our eternal home;	A thousand ages in Thy sight Are like an evening gone; Short as the watch that ends the night Before the rising sun.
Beneath the shadow of Thy Throne Thy Saints have dwelt secure; Sufficient is Thine Arm alone, And our defence is sure.	Time, like an ever-rolling stream, Bears all its sons away; They fly forgotten, as a dream Dies at the opening day.
Before the hills in order stood, Or earth received her frame, From everlasting Thou art God, To endless years the Same.	O God, our help in ages past, Our hope for years to come, Be Thou our guard while troubles last, And our eternal home. Amen.

Silent Prayer, all standing.

Sentences.

NOW we see through a glass darkly, but then face to face; now know we in part; but then shall we know even as we are known.

Wherefore, seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight and the sin that doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus, the Author and the Finisher of our faith.

Psalm xlvii.

GOD is our hope and strength: a very present help in trouble.

2. Therefore, will we not fear, though the earth be moved: and though the hills be carried into the midst of the sea.

3. Though the waters thereof rage and swell: and though the mountains shake at the tempest of the same.

4. The rivers of the flood thereof shall make glad the city of God: the holy place of the tabernacle of the Most Highest.

5. God is in the midst of her, therefore shall she not be removed: God shall help her, and that right early.

6. The heathen make much ado, and the kingdoms are moved: but God hath shewed His voice, and the earth shall melt away.

7. The Lord of Hosts is with us: the God of Jacob is our Refuge.

8. O come hither, and behold the works of the Lord: what destruction He hath brought upon the earth.

9. He maketh wars to cease in all the world: He breaketh the bow and knappeth the spear in sunder, and burneth the chariots in the fire.

10. Be still then, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, and I will be exalted in the earth.

11. The Lord of Hosts is with us: the God of Jacob is our Refuge. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Lesson.

THE souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and there shall no torment touch them. In the eyes of the foolish they seemed to die: and their departure is taken for misery and their going from us to be utter destruction: but they are in peace. For though they be punished in the sight of man, yet is their hope full of immortality. And having been a little chastened, they shall be greatly rewarded: for God proved them, and found them worthy of Himself. As gold in the furnace He proved them, and as a whole burnt offering He accepted them. And in the time of their visitation they shall shine forth, and run to and fro like sparks among the stubble. They shall judge nations, and have dominion over peoples, and the Lord shall reign over them for evermore. They that put their trust in Him shall understand the truth: and such as be faithful shall abide with Him in love: for grace and mercy is to His saints, and He hath care for His elect.

Dedication.

IN the Faith of Jesus Christ we dedicate this Memorial to the Glory of God and in proud and loving memory of those Elizabethans who gave their lives in the Great War in the cause of Right and Liberty. In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

The Roll of Honour.

BRETHREN, we are here gathered together to remember before God those whom we have known and loved in this place; and who have in this War given their lives for their country and for us. Sorrowful, yet proud, in love, and in sure confidence, we are to commend their souls to Him Who promised: Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life. We shall thank Him for their examples, and for the heritage which they have left to us. We shall ask that their Christ-like offering be accepted, that their sin be all blotted out, and that they may be perfected in Christ's service unto the day of His coming again. And we shall beseech God for ourselves, that there may be between us and them communion through Jesus Christ; and that we, like them, keeping His works unto the end, may finally be numbered amongst those that have overcome, and are counted worthy to enter into the joy of the Lord.

Address.

Prayer.

WE commend into Thy hands of mercy, most merciful Father, the souls of our brothers whom we now remember before Thee: beseeching Thine infinite goodness to give us grace to live in Thy fear and love, and to die in Thy favour; that when the Judgment shall come, which Thou hast committed to Thy well-beloved Son, both these our brothers and we may be found acceptable in Thy sight, and may hear these most sweet and comfortable words: Come to Me, ye blessed of My Father, possess the Kingdom which hath been prepared for you from the beginning of the world: grant this, O merciful Father, for the sake of Jesus Christ, our only Saviour, Mediator, and Advocate. Amen.

O Lord God, the Maker and Builder of every house not made with hands, we give Thee thanks for this School in which we have our share. Give Thy blessing, we beseech Thee, to all in this our body, to the Governors, the Masters, and Scholars, and to those who minister to our needs. As Thou has joined together in this place boys with divers tastes, give us a spirit of unity and zeal, that we may with one mind and one mouth glorify Thee. Enable us so to use this our inheritance, that, as we have entered into the labours of others, they in turn may enter into ours. Remember, O Lord, for good all who have gone forth from this School to labour elsewhere in Thy Kingdom. Grant that both they and we may fulfil Thy purpose for us in this life, and finally may attain Thine everlasting Kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hymn.

For all the Saints, who from their their labours rest,	And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
Who Thee by faith before the world confess'd,	Steals on the ear the distant triumph- song,
Thy Name, O Jesu, be for ever blest. Alleluia!	And hearts are brave again and arms are strong. Alleluia!
Thou wast their Rock, their For- tress, and their Might;	The golden evening brightens in the west;
Thou, Lord, their Captain in the well-fought fight;	Soon, soon to faithful warriors comes their rest;
Thou in the darkness drear their one true Light. Alleluia!	Sweet is the calm of Paradise the blest. Alleluia!
O may Thy soldiers, faithful, true, and bold,	But lo! there breaks a yet more glorious day;
Fight as the Saints who nobly fought of old,	The Saints triumphant rise in bright array;
And win, with them, the victor's crown of gold. Alleluia!	The King of glory passes on His way. Alleluia!
O blest communion, fellowship divine!	From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;	Through gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
Yet all are one in Thee, for all are Thine. Alleluia!	Singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Alleluia! Amen.

Prayer.

COMFORT, O Lord, we pray Thee, all who mourn the loss of those who are near and dear to them. Be with them in their sorrow. Support them in Thy love. Teach them to rest and lean on Thee. Give them faith to trust in Thy goodness, and to know that neither life nor death can separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord. To whom with the Father and the Holy Ghost be all honour and glory, now and for ever. Amen.
