EDITORIAL NOTES.

It is but fitting that we, as a School which boasts of a Charter conferred by the favour of a great Queen, should express our unbounded sorrow at the death of a great and much beloved King. For one and all of us this melancholy event, coming as it did with almost stupefying suddenness, overshadows all other happenings. Those of us who paid our last tribute of respect to the memory of King Edward VII. will throughout a lifetime remember the deeply impressive Memorial Service which we attended in state at the Parish Church of Chipping Barnet. The Summer Term of 1910 will surely ever remain within our memories. As loyal subjects, too, we take this opportunity of declaring our unswerving allegiance to our new monarch, King George V., and his Consort, Queen Mary. May the new reign be long and prosperous!

The record of this term's cricket is most encouraging, and we can claim to have had an eleven considerably better than those which have represented the School for years. Not even the most optimistic amongst us could possibly accuse this year's team of being a really good batting side, but we have, on more occasions than not, been able to get out our opponents for a total that was within the scope of our batting powers. The chief factors in the success of the side have been the excellent captaincy and patient batting of W. Bearman; the bowling of G. Barber, C. C. Beazley, and W. H. Wall; the safe fielding of the team as a whole, and of D. L. Tucker in particular. Not many of our opponents can claim to have been allowed a second innings through a dropped catch, and the ground fielding has been good, if not brilliant. Of the younger members of the eleven, mention should be made of J. H. S. Matthews, who shows promise of good work next year.

The middle of July is hardly a seasonable period to discuss football, though one might have played in perfect comfort on one or two days of the present month. One item of news comes to hand, however, which should be interesting to the ambitious young player. It is proposed during next term to select a combined eleven from the Schools of Hertfordshire to pit against the Herts County eleven. The date fixed provisionally is October 5th, and the match will probably take place at St Albans. Herein lies a chance to any keen schoolboy to bring credit to himself and honour to his School by winning a place in the representative combined Schools' eleven. Another point that ought to be gratifying to us also is the proposed visit of Cambridge University to the School Ground on October 27th, their opponents being Hertfordshire. We have a lively recollection of the splendid football shown on the last occasion of a visit from Cambridge.

We wish to give a hearty welcome to Mr. D. P. Coulton, B.A., who joined the staff at the beginning of the present term as Modern Language Master. Mr. Coulton was educated partly abroad, and at London University, where he secured an honours degree. Previous to coming to us he was at the Tiffin's School, Kingston-on-Thames, and at the Southgate County School.

We have to congratulate J. W. Parker on his well-deserved success in gaining a Sizarship at Corpus Christi College, Cambridge. We have racked our editorial brain, but have not yet been able to fix the last date upon which any Elizabethan went direct from School to Oxford or Cambridge : it must have been a long time ago. What we chiefly want is a regular succession of boys going up to the 'Varsity. Nothing could do more good to the School than this, and leaving exhibitions are sadly wanted to encourage this practice. When is the Old Elizabethan or Barnet Resident, possessed of superfluous wealth, going to reveal himself and endow us with such scholarships ?

Our younger brethren, too, have been distinguishing themselves, and we offer our congratulations to A. R. Creese and A. H. Kerr in their being quite high up in the competitive entrance examination to Christ's Hospital. Rumour says that they were both in the first ten.

We are glad to note that operations have already commenced towards repairing the Fives Courts. For some little time now they have been in a state of dilapidation, and the middle buttress looked, as Mr. "Punch's" Irishman remarked, "as if someone had been leanin' agin it." Everything, however, should be in order by the Autumn term.

If numbers were any criterion, the Old Elizabethan Club should be a prosperous Society, and the cover of this Magazine would seem by the number of names it contained to show the strength of the Club. If, however, what the Secretary reports is correct, the idea of the privileges of membership entertained by a large number of these so-called members does not include the very essential privilege of paying a subscription. Can it be really true that not fifty Old Elizabethans are contributing members to the Club? If so, we do not hesitate to recommend a careful scrutiny of the membership list with a view to eliminating the defaulters. Such a course of action must do more good than harm.

* * *

We are glad to hear the the following members of the School XI., namely:—G. Barber, C. C. Beazley, W. H. Wall, J. S. Monro, and G. Matthews, have joined the Barnet Cricket Club, and shall hope to see them distinguish themselves in the ranks of Barnet "A" during the holidays. This is as it should be.

The Editor is glad to take this opportunity of thanking J. W. Parker, the Head of the School, for the willing and valuable help he has rendered him by supplying accounts of the football matches during the past season. He is also indebted to W. Bearman, the Captain of Cricket, for his kind and ready assistance in furnishing him with matter relating to the School Cricket.

SCHOOL v. OLD ELIZABETHANS.

This match was played on Wednesday, June 8th, and resulted in a win for the School by 62 runs, thanks to some good bowling by Barber and Wall, and a freely-hit innings of 76 by Mr. Lovegrove. The Old Boys were not so strongly represented as usual. The day was perfect, being bright and warm without any wind. For the Old Elizabethans, Samuels and Judge batted well, but none of the others gave the bowlers much trouble. The batting of the boys was very disappointing, as not one of them succeeded in reaching double figures. The two elevens were, as usual, hospitably entertained to lunch in the School Hall by Mr. Lattimer, who also kindly provided tea on the Ground. In the evening the Annual Supper was held at the Salisbury Arms, and a successful programme of songs and recitations was given.

Bearman played a steady innings, but met with little support from the rest of the team, though the bowling was only very moderate. HOUSE MATCHES.

Broughton repeated their victory of last year, and again carried off the cup. They were by far the strongest team, as they had five members of the School XI., and won both their matches against Leicester and Underne by an innings. For this result they have to thank the batting of Bearman and Monro and the good bowling of Barber and Tucker. Underne was the next strongest team, containing three members of the XI. They were weak in batting, with the exception of Guyatt, but had a useful trio of bowlers in W. H. Wall, J. S. Hieber, and G. Larkin. There was not much to choose between Stapylton and Leicester, though the former possessed more batting talent than the latter, and had the invaluable aid of Beazley with the "leather."

CHARACTERS OF THE XI.

- W. BEARMAN.—An ungainly bat, but very hard to get out.
Has scored consistently throughout the season. A sound fieldsman. As captain has been a success, handling his team with judgment.
- G. BARBER.—The best all-round cricketer in the team.
Has failed in batting through want of confidence. An excellent bowler; slack in the field.
- C. C. BEAZLEY.—Has failed in batting through playing stiffly. An exceedingly good bowler; generally a sound field.
- D. L. TUCKER.—The best fieldsman in the team. Especially good at third man and in deep field. Has been disappointing in batting.
- T. GUYATT.—Ought to become a good left-hand batsman, but lacks confidence. Might make a slow left-hand bowler, but knows too much to take any advice. Weak in the field.
- W. H. WALL.—A good bowler on his day. Should make lots of runs if he sticks to the game. Must improve his fielding.
- A. K. WILLIAMS.—Has plenty of cricket in him, but at present seems handicapped by his sight not being strong. Slow in the field.
- G. H. MATTHEWS.—Will make plenty of runs when he gets stronger. Must learn to use his feet more. An excellent field.
- F. HIEBER.—An ungainly but hard-hitting bat. Has proved useful behind the stumps.

J. S. MONRO.—Has been a great disappointment. Started season fairly well, and then fell off in both batting and fielding.

J. W. PARKER.—Plays a very straight bat, but is "stiff." Might make lots of runs if he practised. Slow in field.
